Is there a cost?

We ask those who can to help EBC with the overhead cost of the studies by giving $10.00 (donating just $2.00 a week is a great option). However, we are sensitive to circumstance and would never discourage anyone from attending for any reason.

How can I choose? Will the same studies repeat?

With such a variety of interesting classes it may be hard to decide! Curriculum options may change from semester to semester, however any study that is well received and piques interest will continue. Choose your class based on topic, location, day or time!
